

EVER WONDERED WHAT ENVIRONMENTAL PRACTITIONERS DO ALL DAY?

- Is it
- (a) Go cross-eyed examining bugs under a microscope
 - (b) Sit at a desk staring at spreadsheets
 - (c) Pull on waders and traipse through muddy streams to do a count of eels and inanga
 - (d) Don a hard hat and gummies and talk tough with construction site managers

Join us Thursday 18th May 5:30 – 7pm to find out!
